MASON EWING WAS AWARDED AT THE FRANCE-USA INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

The France-USA International Film Festival recently took place, showcasing a blend of Hollywood glamour and international talent. The event was attended by numerous Honorary Consuls, dignitaries, and industry professionals, highlighting the festival's significance in bridging cultures through cinema.

On November 18, Mason Ewing received an award at the Aster Hotel in Hollywood at 7:30 PM. Currently, he is working on a horror film titled The Raven's Circle, which boasts a star-studded cast of prominent Hollywood actors. The film is set for distribution in Europe and Asia by Enorama, led by his manager, Thanasis Psilopoulos, further emphasizing the festival's role in promoting global film initiatives.
